The Porvoo Communion

An Invitation to Prayer

The Porvoo Declaration commits the churches which have signed it 'to share a common life' and 'to pray for and with one another'.

One way to do this is for us all to pray for the diocese of our churches, and their bishops. You are invited to choose one day each week on which to pray for the bishops and people of the Porvoo churches. For individuals this is more likely to be a weekday, though for congregations it should be Sunday.

More information is available on the website: www.porvoochurches.org

The Porvoo Common Statement

This is the name given to a report issued at the conclusion of theological conversations by official representatives of four Anglican Churches and eight Nordic and Baltic Churches in 1989-1992. The Porvoo Common Statement included the text of the Porvoo Declaration, which the participants commended for acceptance to their Churches.

They were the Churches of England and Ireland, the Church in Wales and the Episcopal Church of Scotland, together with the Churches of Denmark, Norway and Sweden and the Evangelical-Lutheran Churches of Estonia, Finland, Iceland, Latvia and Lithuania. Acceptance by the signatory churches means that for the first time the Anglican Churches in Britain and Ireland have now moved into visible communion with other national Churches in Europe.

Why is it called Porvoo?

The report is named after the Porvoo Cathedral in Finland, where the Eucharist was celebrated on the final Sunday of the Conversations. (Porvoo is pronounced 'Porvoh', with the stress on the first syllable).

What is the purpose of the Common Statement?

To draw the Churches involved into a new and closer relationship for the sake of greater unity and more effective mission.

Which Churches have agreed and when

The Estonian Evangelical-Lutheran Church – 19 April 1994
The Church of Sweden – 24 August 1994
The Church of Norway – 15 November 1994
The Scottish Episcopal Church – 9 December 1994
The Church of Ireland – 16 May 1995
The Church of England – 9 July 1995
